

All you that Deserve

I've been waiting for compassion, I've been waiting for your love.
I've never wanted all these nuclear things, all that you deserve is more than you can bear ! Now, you're running hell for leather, trying to have the devil inside. So, you burn Eden and Life, all that you deserve is where you're going to ! I keep on talking to cold hearted, stupid humankind in fact... See the Word take its property back ! All that you deserve is what you pay for ! So, you put the reason up high, so high that nothing can be saved in you...
Unless you realize all that you deserve is who you're gonna be !

I've been living in an illusion, I have died so many times. How do you win against Oblivion and Pain ? All that you deserve is more than I can bear ! All that you deserve is what you pay for ! All that you deserve is a better you maybe...
