The Pyramid of Ice

Kailasa makes it clear, no country is a promised land. Pyramid of ice is here, floating over cold water. No one knows and no one cares what the falcon's eye can see. Eternity is just a dream, reality is just a lie. Now, I see my face, it's been reflecting on Kailasa Lakes, on Kailasa Mount. From east to west, Love leads our Quest, like a sun at noon, like a crescent moon. There's not a temple on the earth that is higher than the Word. Pyramid of ice is here, protected by Maât and Hathor. My ancestors from Tibet drew it on a Mandala. There's not a temple on the earth that is stronger than the Word...
